Rockport Man Killed in Auto- Pedestrian Accident

On Thursday Oct. 15, 2015 at 5:56am, officers of the Rockport Police Department were dispatched to the 3500 blk of Business Hwy 35 South in reference to an auto-pedestrian accident. On arrival officers discovered that a white Toyota Tundra pickup driven by Hunter Stuebe, 19 years of age, of Broken Arrow Ok was travelling south on Business 35 South when the victim walked across the roadway, directly in the path of the approaching pickup. The victim was wearing dark colored clothing. The driver stated that he was unable to see the man until it was too late. The victim was struck and died on impact. The incident is under investigation, however no charges are expected. The name of the victim is being withheld pending notification of next of kin.
