Employment Eligibility Verification USCIS Form I-9 Notice

The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 requires employers to verify the citizenship, or authorization to work in the United States, on all individuals since November 6, 1986. Documentation is required no later than three days from employment commencement. It is the employee's responsibility to assure the Human Resources Department receives the appropriate documentation.

I acknowledge that I have read the above Employment Eligibility Verification USCIS Form I-9 Notice.

New Hire Reporting Notice

Federal and state law requires employers to provide information about all new or rehired workers to the Employer New Hire Reporting Operations Center in the Texas Office of the Attorney General. New hire reporting is mandated by federal law under the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 and requires employers to report information that includes new employee's name, address, social security number, date of birth, salary information, and other work information. The State of Texas New Hire Program helps state agencies detect and prevent fraud, recover overpayments, and enables the Office of the Attorney General to locate noncustodial parents for child support.

I acknowledge that I have read the above New Hire Reporting Notice.

Certification

I hereby certify that answers given herein are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and agree that if employed, any misrepresentation, falsification or omissions of facts thereon shall justify my dismissal.

I hereby authorize the City of Rockport to fully investigate my record and work qualifications either before or after my employment by the City of Rockport, and to facilitate such investigation. I also hereby authorize any persons, office, agency or source, having information and knowledge about my personal, employment, military, educational, driving record, criminal, credit or financial history; prior work related injury information, physical screening, drug screening and other related matters as may be necessary in arriving at an employment decision to furnish and release such information to the City of Rockport. I hereby release employers, schools, agencies, or persons from all liability in responding to inquiries in connection with my application.

I understand that additional testing of job-related skills and drug screening may be required prior to employment after a contingent job offer of employment, and prior to reporting to work. Depending on the needs of the job, I may be required to be examined by a medical professional designated by the City to determine my ability to perform the essential functions of the job, with or without reasonable accommodation.

In submitting this application, I understand that it becomes the property of the City of Rockport and will not be returned. I hereby understand and acknowledge that any employment relationship with the City is of an "at will" nature; which means any employee may resign at any time and the City may discharge any employee at any time with or without cause.
